

A Bridge to a Bridge

Bringing Minority, Women, and Veteran Workers and Businesses Together for the Tappan Zee Bridge Project and Beyond

July 25, 2013

Registration starts at 8:30 AM ♦ Conference 9:00 AM - 1:00 PM

Monroe College, King Graduate School of Business

145 Huguenot St, New Rochelle, NY

Keynote Speaker

Meredith Marshall, Managing Partner & Co-founder of BRP Companies

Participants

- Rob Astorino, Westchester County Executive
- Brian Conybeare, Special Advisor for the Tappan Zee Bridge
- Jim Coleman, Executive Director of the Westchester County IDA and MWBE
- Omar Small, Assistant to the City Manager, New Rochelle
- Ann Trenckle, Helmets to Hard Hats
- The New York State Department of Labor Apprenticeship & Training Group (invited)

You Should Attend If:

- You are a certified MWBE or DBE or intend on pursuing certification
- Interested in doing business with the County of Westchester or City of New Rochelle
- Want to register for the Tappan Zee Bridge Project
- You are a minority, woman or a veteran interested in trade jobs

Sponsors: Gathering of Men of New Rochelle, Inc. ♦ Office of Rob Astorino, County Executive, Westchester County ♦ Monroe College ♦ MacQuesten Development, LLC ♦ New Rochelle Branch of the NAACP ♦ Law Office of Richard St. Paul, Esq., PLLC

No fee to attend, but space is limited! Lunch provided to all registrants.

RSVP Today to Abridgetoabridge@gmail.com
For More Info Contact: Darrell Perez 914.230.2065